When You Receive Your Penn Travel Card

Do the following things

1. Activate the card (see sticker attached to card)

   The Bank of America (BoA) card activation code consists of the first 4 digits of your PENN ID# plus the zip code used on your application. (ex. 1007+19454 = 100719454 activation code)

   When you activate your Penn Travel Card there will be an option to self select a PIN number. YES, you want to do this.

2. Know your PIN number

   – The Penn Travel Card features Chip-and PIN security technology.
   – It has a visible metallic square under the Penn shield, above the card number.
   – NOTE: Chip and PIN cards require a PIN for use with some vendors, especially internationally

   If you did not select a PIN number during card activation, information on obtaining a PIN is available at: www.upenn.edu/penntravel/creditcard/online-account-management/97-acct-mgmt-cardholder

   Select “Obtain my PIN number”

3. Set up access to managing your account on-line by visiting the BoA Payment Center (see next slide)

Using the Penn Travel Card

- The Penn Travel Card is for University-related BUSINESS TRAVEL AND ENTERTAINMENT USE ONLY.

- These expenses include:

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Lodging</th>
<th>Transportation</th>
<th>Food &amp; Entertainment</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Room rate, taxes, internet, parking</td>
<td>Airplane, train, bus, rental car, personal car, tolls, parking</td>
<td>Individual meals, business meals with attendees</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Conference Registration Fees</td>
<td>Baggage</td>
<td>Laundry (if trip is longer than 5 days)</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

- Know your PIN number – it may be needed to complete a transaction, especially internationally.

- There may be instances when personal expenses such as gym fees appear on your hotel bill, which was paid for using the Penn Travel Card.
  - Enter that expense as non-reimbursable on your expense report in Concur and Penn will not provide any payment of that expense to the individual or to the credit card.
  - You will be responsible for submitting payment for all non-reimbursable charges directly to Bank of America. Instructions on this are available at “Paying my Bill (non-reimbursable amount)” at following link: http://cms.business-services.upenn.edu/penntravel/creditcard/online-account-management/cardholder.html

NOTE: The Penn Travel Card is not intended to take the place of the University’s Purchasing Card or other Penn approved purchasing methods.
Paying for Penn Travel Card Transactions

• Penn Travel Card transactions automatically feed into Concur, waiting to be included on an expense report.
  – Domestic Transactions will show in Concur within 2 - 4 days.
  – International Transactions will show in Concur with 1 - 2 weeks.

• All transactions made using the Penn Travel Card must be submitted on an expense report, even if the item is non-reimbursable. If an item is non-reimbursable, use expense type “Non-Reimbursable”.

• All Expenses should be submitted on a Concur expense report within 2-3 weeks of the original transaction date. Penn Policy 2368 states “Expenses submitted more than six months (182 days) after being incurred will not be reimbursed without supplemental approval and should not be submitted without explanation of extenuating circumstances.”

• Receipts are required for all transactions over $25 (US Currency). A school/center may elect to require receipts for every expense, regardless of the dollar amount.

• Payment will be made to the credit card account on your behalf, following the approval of the expense report. Do not pay BoA directly for any university reimbursable expenses put on the Penn Travel Card.
