How to Buy Textbooks

Barnes and Noble is Penn's designated provider for all institutional purchases of required, recommended and suggested course books, course packs and similar materials (whether new or used). In practice, this requirement means that when the course materials are purchased using Penn funds, they must be procured from Barnes and Noble via the Penn Bookstore.