Lab Safety Programs

The Office of Environmental Health and Radiation Safety (EHRS), is a section of the Office of the Vice Provost for Research that is responsible for promoting health safety & environmental protection in teaching, research, health care and administrative activities, providing safety-related support services to the PENN community, ensuring compliance with federal, state, and local regulations to achieve optimal control or reduction of hazards and exposures which are detrimental to people, property, and the environment.

Lab safety programs include:

- Biological Safety
- Environmental Program
- Laboratory Safety
- Laser Safety
- Occupational Safety
- Radiation Safety