Burrison Gallery at the University Club at Penn

Alumni Art Exhibit – Homecoming 2014

Call for Submittals

The Burrison Gallery is calling for artwork submittals to be considered for its second annual University Alumni Exhibit. Any member of the Penn Alumni Community may submit their work for consideration. This juried, group show will open with a reception during Arts and Culture during Homecoming, November 1, 2014 and will be on display in the Gallery from November 1 to November 21, 2014.

The purpose of this show is to highlight the creativity of Penn Alumni and to provide a venue for them to share their work with the University community. To qualify for consideration, you must be a Penn alumnus or alumna.

Submittal packages will include 1) a completed application form (see below) and 2) up to three digital images of individual works of art. Works of art must be two dimensional; paintings, drawings, photography, prints, fabric pieces, etc. The deadline for submission of the package is Friday, September 19, 2014. Selected artists will be notified by October 15, 2014.

The Burrison Gallery is an entity of the University Club, a private club for faculty, staff, as well as associate members who include post-doctoral fellows, graduate students and alumni at of the University of Pennsylvania. The Burrison Gallery provides a venue for artists in the University community. Maurice Burrison's vision was to encourage artistic freedom. His legacy continues as the Burrison Gallery emphasizes the role of art and culture in strengthening collaborative relationships across the University.
