Call for Submittals

The Burrison Gallery is calling for artwork submittals to be considered for its seventh annual University Club Members Exhibit. Any member of the University Club at Penn may submit their work for consideration. This juried, group show will open with a reception in the early summer and will be on display in the Gallery from May 26 – August 25, 2017.

The purpose of this show is to highlight the creativity of University Club members and to provide a venue for them to share their work with the University community. To qualify for consideration, you must be a member of the University Club when your submittal package is received. If you are not currently a member, you may apply at http://www.upenn.edu/universityclub/onlinemembership.php.

Submittal packages will include 1) a completed application form (see below) and 2) up to three digital images of individual works of art. Works of art must be two dimensional; paintings, drawings, photography, prints, fabric pieces, etc. All works must be available for sale.

The deadline for submission of the package is May 12, 2017. Selected artists will be notified by May 19, 2017.

The Burrison Gallery is an entity of the University Club, a private club for faculty, staff, as well as associate members who include post-doctoral fellows, graduate students and alumni at of the University of Pennsylvania. The Burrison Gallery provides a venue for artists in the University community. Maurice Burrison’s vision was to encourage artistic freedom. His legacy continues as the Burrison Gallery emphasizes the role of art and culture in strengthening collaborative relationships across the University.
